St. Andrew's Anglican Churchyard and Church Memorial Plaques Kelowna and District Genealogical Society Cemetery Recording Committee

The Kelowna and District Genealogical Society is a non-profit society dedicated to helping people research and document their past. We are located in the Okanagan Valley in the south central interior of British Columbia.

In the mid-1980s the KDGS undertook the first transcription of burial sites. Booklets recording this information were published in the early 1990s.

In 2008, the Cemetery Recording Committee of KDGS took on the task of updating all known burials in the area from Peachland to Oyama. This committee and KDGS members visited the local burial sites to transcribe and photograph gravemarkers. This project now includes church memorial plaques and isolated burials. We hope to include three small cemeteries in the Westbank area in the next publication. There are two large cemeteries in this area that we have not included in this publication: Kelowna Memorial Park Cemetery and Lakeview Memorial Gardens Cemetery. We continue to search for and document isolated burials in the Central Okanagan.

This project includes burials recorded in:

1. Gellatly Cemetery and Gellatly Heritage Park
2. Immaculate Conception Church Cemetery
3. Old Winfield Cemetery
4. Oyama Community Cemetery
5. Peachland Cemetery
6. St. Andrew's Anglican Churchyard
7. St. Theresa Cemetery
8. Westbank Cemetery
9. Winfield Cemetery
10. Small Cemeteries and Isolated or Individual Burials

Photographs of each gravemarker have been published online at The Canadian Gravemarker Gallery <<http://www.gravemarkers.ca/>> and are available from KDGS. The photography and labeling of photographs by surname has been a major portion of this project. These photographs have facilitated the proofreading process and the compilation of the written material. They are also a record of which markers exist today. Some of these markers are deteriorating and may not be legible in the future.

The Cemetery Recording Committee:

Campbell, Susan D. (Chair)
Crane, Marlene I.
Hayes, Robert M.
Neil, Gweneth
Robertson, Carolin S.

This Cemetery Recording project could not have been completed without the help and support of many KDGS members.

We appreciate the extra attention given to these maps by Arthur Green.

The Cemetery Recording Committee has undertaken to make this project as accurate and complete as possible. There will be mistakes and omissions. Please note that not everyone mentioned in this publication is necessarily buried or even deceased. As genealogists, we recognize that associated names help to identify the person we are researching. Therefore, we have included names mentioned on burial markers and often these are of surviving family members.

This is the most complete compilation of its kind to date. We want this work to be helpful to researchers and therefore will be gifting copies to major libraries and depositories as well as to representatives of the cemeteries included in this publication.

History of St. Andrew's Anglican Churchyard

By Robert M. Hayes – 2012

Records of Anglican Church services at Okanagan Mission, south of Kelowna, date from 1909. At that time, there was no church building and services were often held in the Okanagan Mission school house.

In September of 1909, following a church service, a small group of local residents met and made plans for the construction of a church. The Building Committee members were W.D. Hobson, R.L. Dalglish, J.H. Baillie, Robert Gray, and Mrs. Colin Smith (Louisa). Kelowna architect W.A. Peters submitted plans for the new church and they were accepted in April 1910. The cost of the new building was not to exceed $1500. This new church was capable of seating 75 people.

James Hugh Baillie generously donated half an acre of land for the church and churchyard. More than 50 names were drawn up to be canvassed for subscriptions. By 1911, there were more than 30 local donors:

E.A. Barneby	J.H. Golightly	H. Standing
R.A. Bartholomew	H.T.T. Gore-Brown	Mrs. Sutherland
A.H. Bell	Mr. and Mrs. E. Gray	R. Sweny
R.C. Bennett	R. Gray	F.D. Taylor
H.J. Breach	G.C.R. Harvey	Mrs. G. Thompson
V.A. Brisley	W.D. Hobson	J.H. Thompson
A.S. Burdekin	A. Innocent	J.S. Thomson
C.A.V. Butler	R. Lambly	W.M. Thomson
Mrs. A.E. Cameron	Miss Mackenzie	F. Thorneloe
G. Chaplin	H.C. Mallam	W.D. Walker
E.W. Chater	W.E.W. Mitchell	A. Wansbrough-Jones
B.E. Crichton	H.B. Mogg	Dr. W. Wansbrough-Jones
R.L. Dalglish	Miss Oakley	Mrs. Williamson
H.R.F. Dodd	G.A.C. Osborne	M.G.E. Woodmass
G.B. Ford	C.S. Smith
R. Fordham	J.D. Smith

The new church was built by William "Bill" Shand and his son. During the construction of the church, William Shand had an unfortunate accident. His arm had to be amputated as the result of infection caused by a cedar splinter. His son completed the construction of the church.

The first meeting was held in the church on January 25, 1911. The first actual service, conducted by the Rev. Thomas Greene, was on Sunday, February 19, 1911. About 100 people were in attendance. St. Andrew's Church was consecrated on August 13, 1911. It is one of the oldest Anglican churches in the Central Okanagan Valley.

Reflecting the Okanagan Mission's predominately English population, it was decided that, following the centuries-old English tradition, St. Andrew's would have its own churchyard for burials. St. Andrew's is the only local church with its own on-site burial ground. In 1917, an additional quarter acre at the east end of the church was purchased, adding to the initial land donation by J.H. Baillie.

Local Christians, except those who committed suicide, could be buried in St. Andrew's churchyard for a set fee. The Churchwardens were charged with keeping a record of all burials and a Certificate of Burial was issued. The Incumbent and Churchwardens were given the task of maintaining the churchyard. Any headstones or memorials erected first needed the approval of the Incumbent. Burial fees were set aside for the continued maintenance of the churchyard.

Some of the early burials are as follows:

- Elizabeth Bridget Gray: died Okanagan Mission, BC March 19, 1914 age 45 years
- Sheila R.B. Simeon: died August 13, 1916 age eight months
- Jane Mary Gray: died Okanagan Mission, BC March 1, 1918 age 46 years
- Leonard Stallard Bell: died Kelowna June 16, 1918 age two years

This churchyard is open for burials, the majority of them cremations. Some Okanagan Mission residents, including those killed in World War I and II, are commemorated by memorial plaques inside the church.
